invisibleSHIELD full body designs for the new generation of slim, portable devices

Retail price: $24.95

Available: 3Q 2006

Anything from keys, to loose change, to simple everyday use will not scratch or damage the new generation of slim, portable electronic devices, thanks to the latest design innovations of the invisibleSHIELD™. The new design ideas from ShieldZone Corp. were inspired by concerns about how to protect the advanced composite materials and cutting-edge designs of these futuristic gadgets. Exceptionally clear and virtually indestructible, the invisibleSHIELD's™ patent-pending, full body application protects your electronic investment and allows you to use your expensive equipment without worry. invisibleSHIELDS™ are carefully designed and precision cut to fit over 600 devices. It comes with a Lifetime Replacement Guarantee, so if the film does become damaged in the line of duty, ShieldZone will replace the invisibleSHIELD™ for the life of the product. The invisibleSHIELD™ provides guaranteed protection and keeps your naked gadgets looking great ... the way nature intended.

Notes:

Who Cares?

The invisibleSHIELD™ is ideal for all electronics lovers who want to keep their gadgets scratch-free and looking good.

Why Bother?

Because you want to protect your expensive electronics without hiding the design or compromising the function, and bulky cases or flimsy films just don't do the job.
